Besito, Too

Dined at the new Besito in Roslyn. It has been obvious since John Tunney launched the first Besito on New York Ave in Huntington that the longtime restaurateur had another winner. This time however, the Besito proprietor and creator of Blue Honu and American Burger Company is starting a dining trend. Way ahead of the marketplace, Besito offers artfully prepared Mexican food to an upscale audience in a sleek and comfortable setting. It's like ethnic American, modern, hip, tasty food plus a drink menu that begs for a designated driver. For dinner, for drinks, for fun, Besito will be making the mark as Tunney propagates his Huntington Mexican magic up and down the Eastern seaboard and beyond.
